Museum of
THE ORDER OF ST JOHN

Discover over 900 years of history at the Museum of the Order of St John. Its collections and historic buildings tell many tales from dragon slayers and pirates, to stories about modern-day heroes and heroines who use their first aid skills to save lives.

Previously shortlisted for Kids in Museums Family Friendly Museum Award, we're worth exploring!

Family Activities

Take a trail, get hands on with our activity buckets, or have a go at our colouring and activity sheets, which are available for free throughout the year.

Free, drop-in family workshops also run every Wednesday during school holidays between 12:30pm and 3:30pm. Activities include storytelling, arts and crafts, trails and digital discovery.

To find out more please visit our website:

Family Facilities

Toilets and baby changing facilities are available on site.

We are a breastfeeding friendly venue.

Whilst there is no café on site, we are surrounded by lots of great places to eat.

Access

We aim to make our activities accessible to everyone, but if you have any questions, please get in touch: museum@sja.org.uk
